The ANLIBRUM Staff of Elmhurst High of
Fort Wayne, Indiana, introduces its record of '54-'55.

Hail to old Elmhurst High School without peer
Loyal we'll be to you and
In our memory hold most dear
Remembrance of happy days
Standards held high
True-hearted sons and daughters
One for Elmhurst, all for Elmhurst High!

Hi John,
English I was sure alot of fun
wasn't it. Keep up the swell work in track. I wish you
lots of luck in your

Hi Cats:

And . . . here we are! We've had a real nervous four years. It all began a long, long time ago when we first entered as "lost greenies." We really thought the seniors were the most! Then it seemed like it would be centuries before we would be "big wheels." Remember the class tournaments? "Well, we just can't hardly get them no more . . . and . . . we need them!" Our real gone freshman team was the Hoop Happy Half-Breeds. Real weird, eh? What a gay time we had at the freshman party! All we squares just stood around and looked at each other. Why? Who knew how to dance?

Our sophomore year was our basketball year. We cheered, we cheered; we really thought we had it made; but North Side finally came through and won the sectional. Then we cried and we cried.

When we were juniors, we really thought we were cool 'cause that's the year we had our first real gone "dress-up" dance. In our junior year, tho', the prom was really the main event. Everyone made it a point to get in early . . . in the morning, that is. This was the year that the boys finally consented to dance. Man, the prom was really the greatest!

The best word that could describe our senior year is "Money!" Senior pictures, gowns, announcements, name cards, senior banquet, and junior-senior dance. Our maddest dream all four years was for a new gym, all our own . . . and . . . there it is . . . and . . .

Here we are, alive with jive,
The jumpin' Grads of '55!!

P.S. We'll be diggin' ya!!!

Choir

The choir, composed of boys and girls, under the direction of Mrs. Darlene Critchley meets the sixth period each day in room 20. The girls' glee club meets the third period in the morning. A few of their activities during the year were the PTA and Christmas programs and the fall and spring concerts and contests. Officers of the choir for the year are: president, Dick Arnett; vice-president, Rita Harman; treasurer, Roberta Freiburger; secretaries, Barbara Strubbe and John Raney.

Band

The band is under the direction of Mr. Lester Doell. Three thousand five hundred points are required for a letter. Band members earn their points by participation at home basketball games, concerts, private lessons, and the Christmas program. A group known as the Band Boosters, including the parents, is raising funds to buy new band equipment. This year's officers are: John Grile, president; Nancy Henning, vice-president; Joan Altman, secretary; and Joyce Nieman, treasurer.

Magazine Salesmen

This year's magazine sales amounted to $8,015.50. The quota was $8,400; so this means the school fell short of its quota by $384.50. There was a total of 2,297 subscriptions. The high salesman this year was Donna Jean Zelt, who sold $114.80. The next highest salesman was Harvey Adams with $112.80; and the third highest was Anne Marie Bodigan, who sold $97.05. The profits from the magazine campaign are used for a variety of assembly programs enjoyed by the student body throughout the year. Mr. Charles W. Eickhoff sponsors the campaign.

Phi-Chem Club

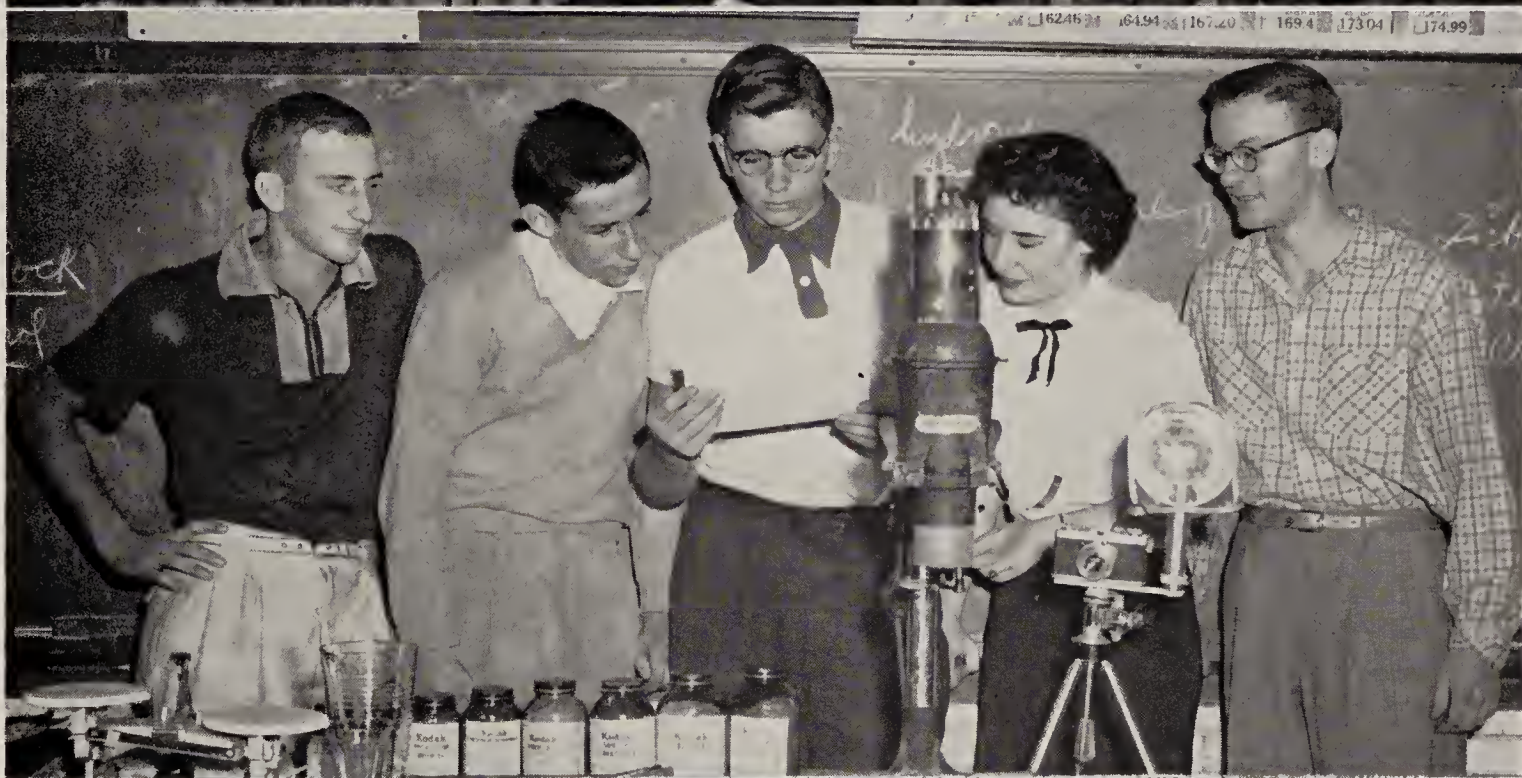

Paul Justus, vice-president of Indiana Junior Academy of Science; Larry Blair, vice-president; Larry Goss, president; Ann Walker, secretary-treasurer; John Grile, photography exhibitor

This club is organized to promote interest in science and industry. One major trip was made to Purdue University where Paul Justus was elected vice-president of the Indiana Junior Academy of Science for next year. Other trips were taken to the Filtration Plant, the International Harvester, and the U. S. Rubber Co. Miss Ruth Wimmer and Mr. Floyd Middleton head this club, give advice, and aid students with their projects and exhibits. A picnic was held on May 13 at McMillen Park. The Phi-Chem Club also sponsors a college scholarship each year with the profit made from the coke machines.

G. A. A.

Anita Zander, organized sports; Carol Ice, treasurer; Arlene Buskirk, vice-president; Marilyn Schoenemann, unorganized sports; Linda Schoenemann, secretary; Karen Meyer, president

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jeanette McClure, has had a busy year. During the winter, the girls participated in volleyball and basketball in the gym each Tuesday and Thursday noon. They played softball in the fall and in the spring. Those girls earning 250 points received their E's. Those earning 350 points were awarded the State G.A.A. Plaque. It is possible to receive points by participating in the above sports, by participating in outside unorganized sports, and by officiating.

Red Cross Club

Larry Blair, first vice-president; Lorene Scherer, treasurer; Stan Goeglein, president; Shirley Spasoff, secretary; Betty Hursh, second vice-president; Arlene Hormann, head monitor

The Red Cross Club, which is sponsored by Miss Ruth Wimmer, is mainly a service club for the school. The club provides hall monitors, librarians, art room monitors, and office help. This year the club sent comic books to the Veterans' Hospital and gave Christmas baskets to needy families in our own community. The club also gave a talent show again this year for the high school, for the grade school, and for the PTA. This show was also given at the Veterans' Hospital. The club is the largest club in the school with a membership this year of about 500.

GUS Club

Roberta Freiburger, vice-president; Salliejean Skinner, treasurer; Nancy May, secretary; Jon Montgomery, president

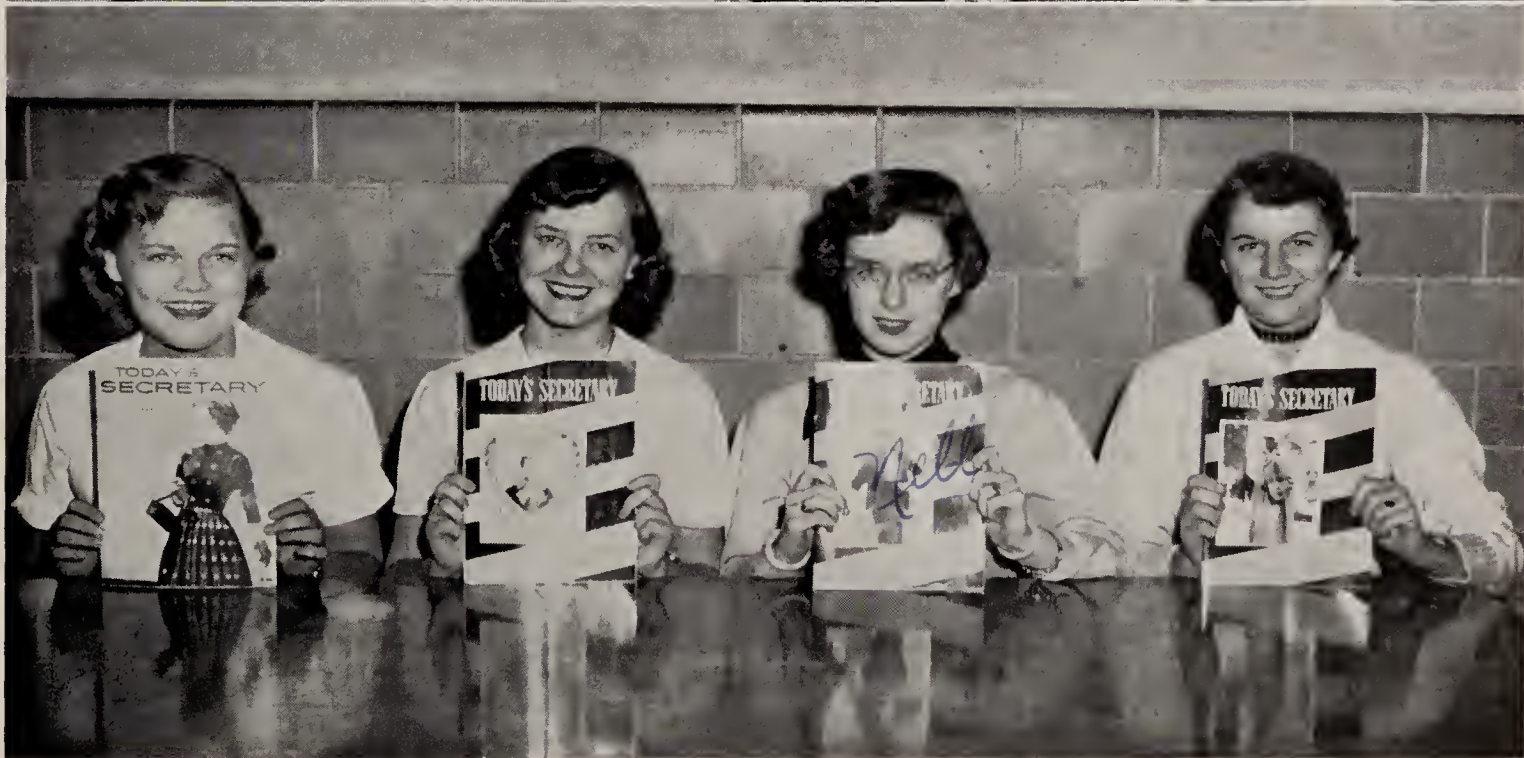

The GUS Club is sponsored by Mr. John Ford Arnold. Membership is limited to past or present students of Mr. Arnold's classes in United States history, government, and sociology. A total of one hundred and thirty-six students joined the club this year. The club's main activity is field trips which include visits to the city court, city jail, and the post office. At the end of the second semester, Mr. Arnold presents five different keys: one to the student excelling in history; one, in government; one, in sociology. An additional key is given to the student who has made the most improvement during the year. Another key is given to the student who has excelled in all three classes.

Commercial Club

Marcile Backs, president; Sandra Goshorn, vice-president; Nellie Buchanan, secretary; Janice Monn, treasurer

One of the larger clubs here at Elmhurst is the Commercial Club, which is composed of one hundred and six students. Its members are those students preparing for a business career. A banquet, held in the spring, is one of the big events of the school year under the direction of Miss Ural Edwards, Mr. Donald Fryback, and Mrs. Marcella Goble.

Award tests in typing and shorthand are given throughout the year. At the banquet, the highest award earned by a member is presented as well as special awards to the students with the highest average in typing, in shorthand, and in bookkeeping.

Nature Club

Karen Meyer, food chairman; Rita Harman, entertainment chairman; Helen Gouty, secretary; Penny Null, president; Darlene Spice, treasurer; Beverly McMullen, publicity chairman; Judy Null, vice-president

The Nature Club consists of students who have taken or who are taking biology. The club sponsor is Mrs. Leonora Simon Bleke. The first semester activities were several Audubon Screen Tours; a visit from Mr. C. V. Kimmel, County Agricultural Agent; and a visit to Pokagon State Park. A total of 225 points is required to earn a letter. An additional hundred points are needed for a pin. For the second semester activity, a party was scheduled. A trip to the Alton Rusts' farm, the Bullerman Dairy, and a visit to the Wayne Co-op also helped the members to gain knowledge and points.

Dramatics Class

Back Row: Bill Strauss, Bernard Kissinger, Clifford Riley, Walter Freiburger, Ronny Morton, Gene Mann, Bill Dalman, Douglas Bay

Middle Row: Carol Yoquelet, Janet Grote, Donna Brunkhart, Howard Hamilton, Joe Bennett, Jeannette Gudakunst, Joan Altman, Carol Blance, Rita Donahue

Front Row: Janice Landrum, Elner Bentz, Marie Roy, Margaret Carpenter, Mary Ruth Lay, Kathleen Whittenbarger, Myrna Long, Carol Keller

Under the direction of Mr. Kent Kurtz, the dramatics class studies play production, readings, radio scripts, pantomimes, impersonations, and characterizations. The class activities consist of two plays. One of these was the production at Christmas. The major play, given on March 11, was Seventeenth Summer. J. Altman, R. Donahue, K. Whittenbarger, J. Landrum, R. Freiburger, J. Oman, J. Shappell, S. Goeglein, H. Hamilton, M. R. Lay, D. Bay, J. Grote, and W. Freiburger were the actors; G. Mann was the stage manager, and C. Blance was the student director.

Main Advance Staff

Middle Row: L. Stults, Advertising Manager; C. Weisenburger, Exchange Editor; N. May, News Editor; B. May, Make-up Editor; S. Goeglein, Sports Editor

Front Row: T. Gebhart, Assistant Advertising Manager; M. Backs, Editor-in-Chief

Members of the ADVANCE Staff are some of the busiest people when deadlines roll around each month. These deadlines are usually met on time thanks to the patience and guidance of Mrs. Ella Banter, who is in charge of the editorial staff, and Mr. Don Fryback, who is in charge of the business staff. The main social event of the staff is a banquet held in the spring. At this banquet staff members who have earned 1,000 points receive E's. Those juniors and seniors who are in the upper third of their class and who have creditably served the ADVANCE receive pins from Quill and Scroll, a national honorary journalistic award.

Home Ec Club

Janet Weyrick, secretary-treasurer; Karen Branstrator, vice-president; Beverly Barker, president; Gertrude Herber, student advisor

The Home Ec Club is usually very busy. One activity for which Mrs. Deahl and the girls have received little publicity is the mending of uniforms for our athletes. They also made curtains for their class room. The mothers of the members were invited to demonstrations of handicrafts and flower arrangements.

Any girl who is taking or has taken home ec at E. H. S. is eligible to this club. At the annual spring banquet, letters are awarded to those girls who have 360 points. At this time silver thimbles are given to girls who have been members of the club for four years. The girls who received thimbles this year were: Beverly Barker, Karen Branstrator, Gertrude Herber, Nancy King, Mildred Meyer, Arlene Meyers, Beatrice Pfeiffer, Ellen Rothenbuhler, Shirley Spasoff, and Janet Weyrick.

Projectionists

Top Row: Ronald Morton, Vernon Allmandinger, Bill Streeter, Paul Justus

Second Row: Frank Goldsmith, Charles Wire, Donald Smith, Harry Grepke, David Inman, Robert Brown, John Weikel; Mr. Middleton, Director

Front Row: Philip Snider, David Masel, Dave Taylor, Kenneth Bly, Charles Flaugh, Ted Huyette

The Projectionists provide movies, record players, slide films, tape recorders, and a public address system for the Elmhurst faculty and students. There are twenty-two members this year. The requirements for membership in this club are as follows: You must be responsible, dependable, and have average grades. Absent from the picture are three boys who joined the club the second semester. They are: James Anderson, Donald Fagan, and Robert Schmitt. The sponsor of this group is Mr. Floyd Middleton.

Speech Club and N. F. L.

Barbara Strubbe, point keeper of Speech Club; Salliejean Skinner, secretary-treasurer of N.F.L.; Larry Goss, president of N.F.L.; Carol Blance, point keeper of N.F.L. and president of Speech Club; Joan Altman, vice-president of N.F.L. and secretary-treasurer of Speech Club; Kenny Stevenson, vice-president of Speech Club

Mr. Kent Kurtz is the sponsor of the Speech Club and the Elmhurst Chapter of the National Forensic League. These clubs, he says, have three purposes: to improve speech-making ability, to provide social contacts, and to go on speaking trips. The members participate in a variety of speech meets and make announcements on our P.A. system. The main event of the year was the District Contest of the Indiana High School Forensic Association, which was held in April.

The Elmhurst Junior Rifle Club is fast becoming one of the most active groups in school. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Reed, the team has had several matches in Indiana and Ohio and has become the second ranking non-military school team in Indiana. Pete Eckrich won a medal for being the best shooter in Indiana in standing position. Janice Johnson is the president; Ed Gebhart, vice-president; and Kathy Whittenbarger, secretary. Richard Merrill is the student coach. Requirements for a letter have been changed from earning bar XIII to getting 155 points. The members shoot on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Monday night after school; the team practices on Friday after school.

Baseball Team

The Elmhurst Trojans under Mr. Don Fryback came to the end of another baseball season with a poor record of one win against five setbacks. This season's team, composed of mostly freshmen and juniors, gained a lot of experience which should prove to be very profitable this coming season. The lighter side of this year's club was the individual batting averages with five boys hitting well over .300. These players are: Dick Sims, .642; Richard Garland, .473; Ronny Snyder, .384; Jack Johnson, .363; Doug Bay, .333.

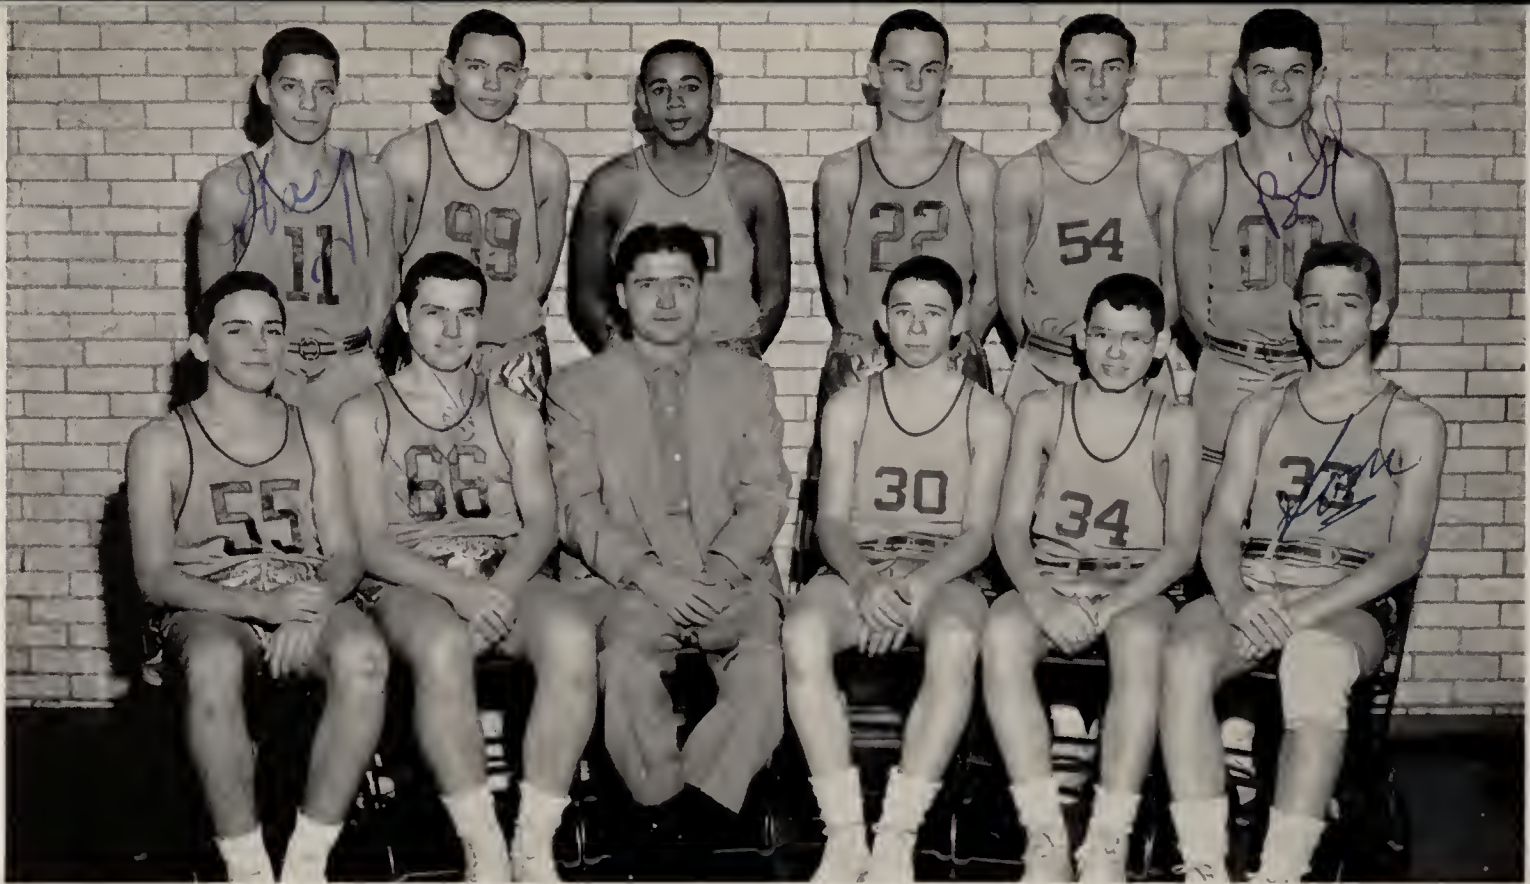

Booster Club

The Booster Club had a total membership of one hundred and thirteen members this year. The booster section consisted of nine rows with nine in each row. Mr. Elden Stoops sponsors this club. The purpose of the club is to promote sportsmanship and good school spirit among the students. The club is in charge of the concession stand at all home games. A student must have one hundred fifty points to earn a letter. He may earn his letter in Booster Club by selling at the home games, by sitting in the booster section, and by making streamers.

Reserve Season

This season's reserve team compiled a season record of five victories against eleven defeats. The team, made up of mostly freshmen and sophomores, had it tough throughout the entire season due to uneven balance and not too much in the way of height. As the scoring in these games indicates, the reserves lost a number of games by five or less points. The freshmen and sophomores on this season's team should come back as strong varsity material in a season or two.

Varsity Season

This season's varsity basketball campaign came to a close with one of the poorest records compiled in recent years. The reason for this seemed to be the lack of experience and height, which are a great factor in a winning team. However, looking over the roster, you will notice there are but two seniors. The underclassmen should come back strong next year.

The main project for the E Club this year was the always popular class tournament held in our new gym. This year the Junior Iddy Biddy Buddies walked off the floor as class tourney champs. In doing so, they first had to dump the Senior Dirty Birds. In the first round of this three day tourney, the Sophomore Saints defeated the Freshman Fireballs.

Besides the fantastic names, there were the unusual color combinations such as pink and black, red and yellow, and others. The purpose of the class tourneys is, of course, not only to give enjoyment to the students, but also to pay for E Club pictures in the yearbook and for a dance each year.

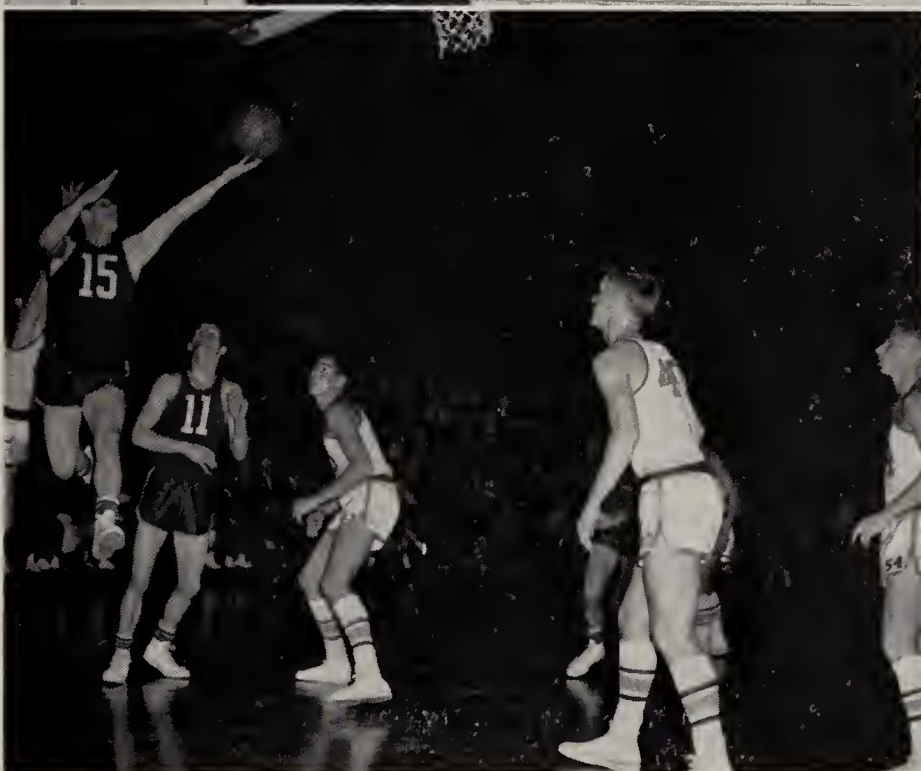

Mr. Eickhoff is chief sponsor of this club. B. Douglass is president; P. Eckrich, vice-president; C. Roehm, secretary; M. Backs, treasurer. All present and former E Club members and all sponsors who award E's enjoyed the April Fool Dance.
